BEYOND YOUR BACKYARD NOW GOES RV-ing, TALKS ALL THINGS DISNEY, AND HEADS EAST TO MONTAUK, NY

NEW YORK, NY, June 2, 2020 -- Erik the Travel Guy has posted the newest episode of Beyond Your Backyard NOW taking viewers from the 'End of the World' down to Disney's Magic Kingdom. Each episode delivers up-to-date details about the state of travel as well as ideas for planning one's next trip. Highlights include:

- Travel Q&A: This week Erik heads south to Central Florida, interviewing Walt Disney World News Today CEO Tom Corless. Tom gives viewers a look at what vacationing at Disney will look like once it opens in July.
- Where To Go: Montauk, NY. Erik sits down and speaks with Kay Tyler, Executive Director of the Montauk Chamber of Commerce. Kay explains why the tip of Long Island has something for everyone -- from quaint shops, to a bevy of restaurants and plethora of outdoor activities.
- Hitting the Open Road: RVing. Erik talks with James Ashurt, Executive Vice President of the RV Industry Association. James explains the ease of driving an RV, campground friendliness, and tips for first time renters.

"One great news item from the past week was Disney announcing its plans for reopening," commented host Erik Hastings. "There really is something special about visiting the Magic Kingdom and its reopening is a positive sign for summer travel. With vacationers beginning to make their summer plans, we talk RVing and whisk viewers from one end of NY, specifically Niagara Falls, to the other with a visit to the eastern end of Long Island."
